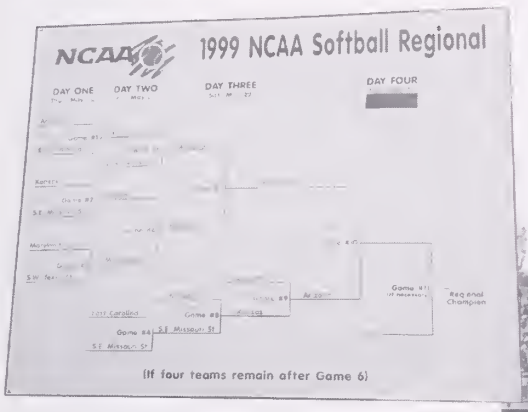
MARYLAND SOFTBALL: A Winning Tradition

NCAA Tournament



THE 1999 TERRAPINS MADE THE FIRST NCAA APPEARANCE IN THE HISTORY OF MARYLAND SOFTBALL AND CAME WITHIN ONE VICTORY OF THE WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES.

ACC Champions

IN 1997, THE TERRAPINS WON A SHARE OF THE ACC TOURNAMENT TITLE IN ONLY THE THIRD SEASON OF MARYLAND SOFTBALL.

All-Americans

TERP PITCHING SENSATION KELLY SHIPMAN HAD THE NATION'S SECOND-LOWEST ERA IN 1996 (0.51) AND EARNED ALL-AMERICA HONORS IN 1999.

WELCOME TO OUR Field Of Dreams

This rendering shows the entry to the new softball complex.

The University of Maryland completed a $3.0 million softball complex last spring. The facility is the latest improvement to a Maryland athletics program that already ranks among the top 10 institutions in the nation for female athletes, according to the 2001 fall issue of Sports Illustrated For Women.

Located adjacent to Maryland's state-of-the-art Comcast Center on the north side of campus, student-athletes will have access to locker room and weight training facilities, an indoor practice gymnasium, athletic department offices and the academic support and career development unit.

What They Are Saying...

"We are committed to providing the best possible resources for all of our athletics programs, and the new softball complex will be one of the finest in the country."

– Deborah A. Yow, Director of Athletics

"The new complex will help us stay competitive in both the conference and the nation. It is an exciting time to be a part of the Maryland softball program."

– Gina LaMandre, Maryland Head Softball Coach

Amenities at the state-of-the-art facility include:

- Stadium seating for more than 1,000 fans
- Underground dugouts with restrooms
- Two bullpen areas
- Four batting cages
- Light towers
- Concessions area
- Ticket booth
- Press box
- Natural Bermuda grass outfield
- Electronic scoreboard
- Ample parking

THE FIRST game

Bettker Tosses No-Hitter

After playing the majority of its season on the road, the Maryland softball team couldn't wait to take the field in College Park. The players' dreams finally came true on April 10, 2002 when they played the opening game against local rival Towson at the $3 million Terrapin Softball Complex. The stadium's many amenities were not all that the fans marveled about on this occasion. Amanda Bettker, who owns Maryland's second-best career ERA and wins total, fanned seven Tiger batters en route to her first complete game no-hitter. The Maryland offense was led by then-sophomore Jen Peel, who drove in three runs on a double to left field. Center fielder Samantha Sweeney, left fielder Casey Leiter, designated hitter Monica Cyphert, and right fielder Lauren Pollock also joined the Terps' hit parade and solidified a 7-0 victory.

2003 TERRAPINS OUTLOOK

Like many things at Marylond, it's the dawning of a new era for Moryland softball. The Terrapins will be ploying their first full seoson ot their new, state-of-the-ort softboll complex. But the excitement doesn't come from the focility thot's housing the teom os it daes from the team thot's playing on its field. A tolented group of veterons returns to the diomond this spring and brings with it on ossortment of tools thot will surely get the yeor off on the right foot.

With only two seniors returning to the team, this year's squad is young but experienced. Seven of Maryland's starters from the 2002 team are either sophomores or juniors who have experienced wins against ACC competition and have played againsT Top 25 teams. In addition to these veterans, four new faces ore expected to moke instont impacts in the Terps' lineup.

This well-rounded group can hit for power or slap a bunt when necessary to drive runs home. Three-time Mid-Atlantic Coach of the Yeor Gina LaMandre notes that this year's squad is making strides ot hitting the ball more consistently, which was one of the focus points of foll proctices. With a talented core of veterons, this yeor looks to be the one where the sophomore and junior classes blossom ond bring Moryland to new heights in the ACC ond eostern region.

In The Pitcher's Circle

The loss of Morylond ace and two-time oll-region selection Amanda Bettker leoves this year's rotation with a larger responsibility to shoulder. Luckily, the three gritty veterans who will appear in the circle ore up to the challenge.

Junior double-threat Manica Cyphert looks to improve upon her 10 wins from last season os she looks to onchor the Terrapin staff. Cyphert's powerful pitches fanned 108 botters in 113.1 innings of work lost season, which ploces her eighth on the teom's single-seoson strikeout records list. Hits were hard to come by ogoinst this intimidoting pitcher, os she held opponents to o .196 botting overage. She olso proved to hove on orm that won't quit ofter pitching oll 13 innings of on overtime victory ogoinst St. Joseph's.

Bock for her second seoson, sophomore fireboller Jessica Aditays looked greot during foll practices and is expected to odd to her seven victories from lost yeor ond shore o majority of time in the circle with Cyphert. In her 20 oppeoronces, she struck out 48 opponents and maintained a 2.00 ERA. She completed nine gomes, two of which were shutouts.

Junior Liz Gall is olso expected to contribute to the Terps' rotation. Gall didn't pitch during the 2002 compaign, but was a greot spot pitcher for Maryland in 2001. She shows good control, ollowing only seven wolks ond striking out 17 during her rookie seoson.

Behind the Plate

With the graduation of backstop moinstay Beth Radford, versotile junior Casey Leiter will move in from the outfield ond take over cotching responsibilities. Lost seoson, she shared time with Radford behind the plate. Leiter started 50 gomes for the Terps in 2002 and proved to be an offensive sparkplug. She amassed 43 hits, second-most on the team, and boosted a .339 on-base percentage.

Rachel Greysan, one of the team's three freshmen, is expected to share cotching duties with Leiter. LaMondre scouts Greyson as a smart catcher with a quick releose. This newcomer gunned down half of all bose runners who attempted to steal os a four-year starter and defensive MVP at El Toro High School.

Around the Horn

A veteron group will serve os the core to Morylond's infield this season. Despite being a newcomer to Morylond, sophomore Crystal Rizzuta is no rookie. As a freshmon, Rizzuto played third base for Toledo ond mointained o .951 fielding percentage. She batted .262 for the Rockets, ond LoMondre louds her instincts in the field ond her quick bot.

Energetic ond versatile leoder Jillian Callaway will move across the diomond from third to first in her senior season. Collowoy hos been o greot contributor to the Terropins throughout her coreer, providing a clutch bot in the lineup for the past three seosons.

The middle infield will be held down by veterons Jen Peel ond Malissa Maczulski.

Peel is coming off a strong fall and will be starting at second base for a third straight season. In 2002, she started every game for the Terps and drove in 21 runs. She also showed speed on the base paths by swiping six bags in six attempts. Her .963 fielding percentage exhibits her defensive prowess, and as LaMandre notes, "She has the ability to make the difficult plays look easy."

Maczulski will start at shortstop for her second season. The sophomore has a great arm and also contributed to the Terrapins' lineup during her rookie season. Her .344 slugging percentage was best among Maryland rookies and .361 on-base percentage was fifth-best on the team.

Sophomores Christen Cuozzi and Nneka Cardoza, along with freshman Shelly Rollison, will also play significant roles in the Terrapin infield. Rollison is expected to add depth to the corner positions, while Cuozzi is a middle infield specialist. Cardoza served as a key role player for the Terps.

In the Outfield

Maryland center fielder Samantha Sweeney returns to the outfield after a break-out season. Sweeney sat out all of 2001 with an elbow injury, but made an impressive comeback in 2002 and was named to the All-ACC team. Sweeney led her teammates and was among the ACC leaders in many offensive categories, including batting average (.350), runs scored (35), hits (62), triples (4), and stolen bases (25). As shown by her stolen base totals, this all-region second teamer possesses great speed and has the ability to hit for power or slap down a bunt.

Sophomore Lauren Pallack will return to the Terps' outfield after having a tremendous rookie season. Pallack was an instant contributor to the lineup, batting .248 and driving in 14 runs. When not patrolling the outfield, Pallack will serve as a designated hitter and the backup first baseman.

Crystal Tweedy turned heads during the fall season, causing LaMandre to remark, "Tweedy really impressed us. She's the most improved player since last year." As one of Maryland's top base runners last season, the sophomore scored 11 runs.

Also making appearances in the outfield will be Cardoza and freshman Natalie Grossman. Cardoza, typically an infielder, worked hard during the fall and made a smooth transition to the outfield. LaMandre says that she will add unparalleled depth to the Terps' defense. Grossman is a quick player with a good arm and will be vying for time in this talented outfield.

The Schedule

The most noticeable difference between last year and this year's schedules is that the Terrapins will play 40 home games. Between inclement weather and construction on the new Terrapin Softball Complex, the Terps took the field in College Park only five times.

Maryland will play host to three tournaments this season against regional threats Towson, Fairfield, Villanova, Hofstra, and Delaware State. Four of Maryland's scheduled opponents were ranked in the final 2002 USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association Top 25, including No. 22 Georgia, which will host the Terps in their first weekend of action. Other nationally ranked opponents include ACC foes No. 4 Florida State and No. 18 Georgia Tech, along with No. 25 Florida Atlantic. The Terps will also face off with Illinois-Chicago and Chattanooga, both of which appeared in the NCAA Regionals last season. As always, Maryland will face tough competition during conference play, with road trips to Florida State and Virginia.

Despite the challenges, this young yet experienced team looks forward to rising to the occasion in 2003.

Gina LaMandre

Head Coach
Trenton State '86
Ninth Season at Maryland

When head coach Gina LaMandre was hired in 1995 to construct Maryland softball "from the ground up," it was her intent to build a first-class program. Now entering her ninth season, LaMandre has certainly achieved that goal, establishing the Terrapins as a force in the collegiate softball world.

This season, LaMandre's Terrapins add four talented newcomers to the strong core from last year's 31-21 team. Seven starters return from a 2002 squad that finished third in the ACC and worked its way to the third-best winning percentage in Maryland history (.596). As a complement to solid starting pitching, this young yet experienced team is showing more speed and hitting ability than years past, which will be the foundation for a stellar 2003 season.

In 1999 – only the fifth season of the team's existence – LaMandre guided the Terrapins a school-record 51 wins, garnering the school's first invitation to the NCAA Tournament and riding the wave of success all the way to the Region 2 final game.

LaMandre's effort was rewarded as she was named ACC Coach of the Year for the first time in her career. LaMandre and assistant coach Rachel Lawson were tabbed NFCA Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year, marking the third time LaMandre was honored with that distinction.

The 1999 Terrapins experienced the most prolific season to date, making the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance and finishing the season ranked No. 12 in the nation. This ranking was the team's first top 25 citation in the program's short history. The Terrapins set a number of team records that season, including victories (51), at bats (1,940), hits (507), runs (316), doubles (88), home runs (39), RBI (277) and walks (205). Seven different Terps were singled out for postseason honors that year.

In the program's fourth season, the 1998 squad finished 28-22, posting a .560 winning percentage. Strides were made in conference play as well, as the Terrapins were also able to mark a 4-4 record against ACC opponents.

In 1997, the Terrapins took a tremendous step toward becoming a recognizable program. The Terps, in only their third year of existence, captured a share of the 1997 Atlantic Coast Conference championship with defending champion Florida State. Maryland finished the regular season at 26-23, and used a 3-1 ACC Tournament mark to claim a share of the title. LaMandre was rewarded by her peers, for the second straight season, as the NFCA Coach of the Year for the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Terps Finish Season With 31-21 Mark

With five newcamers playing significant rales far the Terrapins, 2002 was marked as a growing period for the 31-21 squad. Despite having many new faces, the team finished with the third-best winning percentage in Maryland history (.596). As rainouts and construction an a new softball complex persisted, the Terrapins played all but five af their games on the road, taking on several natianally ranked appanents.

The Terps opened up the season in Tuscalaasa, Ala.,where they toak three of five games at the Bama Bash. They went on to pick up twa wins in bath the Seminole Classic and Speedline Invitational, and swept a twa-game set at the USF-Haliday Inn Classic against Seton Hall and Coastal Carolina.

In mid-March, the Terps swept doubleheaders fram regianal campetitars Delaware and LaSalle. The Terps continued to tear through their mid-seasan raad schedule, picking up victories against Michigan State, Elon, Western Kentucky, and Harvard at the Speedline Invitational. After hitting a speed bump against ACC campetitian in the Tar Heel Invitational, the young team put tagether a great stretch run in April. They wan 10 of 11 games, including a daubleheader sweep at Narth Caralina. These canference wins solidified Maryland's pasitian ta finish third in the ACC, its best finish since 2000.

The seasan cancluded during the ACC Taurnament in Tallahassee, Fla., where the Terrapins last their first twa games in the dauble-elimination playoff. Maryland fought hard against taurnament champian Geargia Tech, taking them into extra innings befare allawing the Yellaw Jackets to capture the 1-0 victory in the ninth. Maryland finished aut its season with a 4-1 border war loss to Virginia and placed fifth in the taurnament.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has became so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 50th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 85 national champion-ships, including 43 in women's competition and 42 in men's. In addition, 120 men and 31 women have earned the coveted title of NCAA champion.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Maryland's victory over Indiana in last year's national title game, ACC teams have captured nine NCAA basketball championships, including five over the last 12 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1938. The nine current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 296-150 for a sterling .664 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, the ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 184-87 (.679) NCAA record, including 51 "Sweet 16" appearances and 18 Final Four berths. Since 1985, 51 of the 92 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

North Carolina and Duke lead all ACC schools with three NCAA championships each. NC State has two NCAA titles to its credit and Maryland one. The Tar Heels captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982 and 1993 while the Blue Devils won back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992 and their third in 2001. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed last year's crown.

The stature of ACC basketball is defined by its national television exposure. An all-time high 154 televised games involving ACC teams headline the league's 2002-03 schedule, including a record 231 appearances. League teams are slated to make 135 appearances on national television networks. Seventy of the league's 72 regular season conference games, including 42 on national television networks are scheduled to be televised.

The Member Teams

Clemson – Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

Duke – Joined the SC in December, 1928; charter member of the ACC in 1953.

Florida State – Charter member of the Dixie Conference in 1948, joined the Metro Conference in July, 1976; joined the ACC Sept. 15, 1990.

Georgia Tech – Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of SC in 1921, charter member of the SEC in 1932, joined the ACC in July, 1979.

Maryland – Charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

North Carolina – Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

NC State – Charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

Virginia – Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of the SC in 1921, resigned from SC in December 1936, joined the ACC in December, 1953.

Wake Forest – Joined the SC in February 1936, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

History of the ACC

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school withdrew from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

UNIVERSITY OF Maryland

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Fifteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality, beginning with the quality of our students. For more than 10 years, every freshman class has been the most talented in the university's history, including this year's. Not only are their grade-point averages and SAT scores stellar, about half of them finished in the top 10 percent of their high school graduating class.

But Maryland students excel in more ways than just the classroom. They are leaders in the arts and culture, community service, civic engagement and athletics.

What's more, the student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 65 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, reaching $308.5 million for FY 01. Private giving has increased even more dramatically, from $17 million to $77 million in FY01. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, current enrollment stands at 25,099 undergraduate and 9,061 graduate. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs, and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

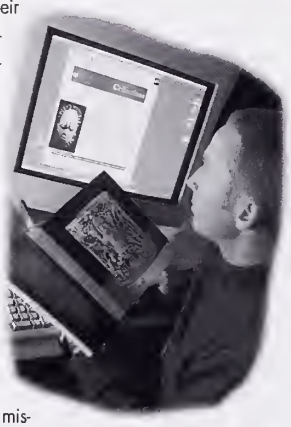
Zibraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Harnbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institutian in the Washingtan metrapalitan area, praviding vital resources to researchers, visiting schalars, and businesses thraughaut the regian. The libraries' holdings include mare than 2.5 millian volumes, 24,000 subscriptians ta periodicals and nearly 5 millian items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surraunding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights inta the classraam, and for students to begin their explaratian af their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number af arganized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promate the acquisition and analysis af new knawledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.



The university's enviable location – just nine miles fram dawntawn Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles fram bath Baltimore and Annapolis – enhances the research af its faculty and students by providing access ta same af the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Pragrams af public service are central to the overall mission af the university. The philasaphy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and educatian communities.

With more than 90 high technalagy firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick caunties, the university has faund abundant apportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs ta the regian. Many af these pragrams are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technalagy Advancement Pragram and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access ta technalagy that will advance their ecanamic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has farmed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghause, BF Gaadrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry prablems in the fields af cammunicatians, manufacturing, contrals and robotics.

The university last year opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, with its six state-of-the art perfarmance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural pragramming in the Washingtan metrapalitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range af public art thraughaut the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students af all levels an appartunity ta participate as spectators or athletes.

C.D. Mote Jr.

University President
Fifth Year at Maryland ◂ California '59

When C.D. "Dan" Mate Jr. become the 19th president af the University af Marylond on Sept. 1, 1998 he procloimed it a university "an the move." Faur years later, under his guidance, Morylond cantinues ta mave – at on ever accelerating rate – on the field, in the classroom, in the community, and in the world.

The University of Morylond is the stote of Moryland's most importont osset, says Mate: "The future of the state depends on this university."

Fulfilling that respansibility is o big job, but it's a rale thot Mate is accustomed to, hoving spent his entire academic coreer ot the University af Califarnia at Berkeley, where he eorned all his degrees, tought engineering ond eventually became vice choncellor far University Relotions before caming ta Maryland.

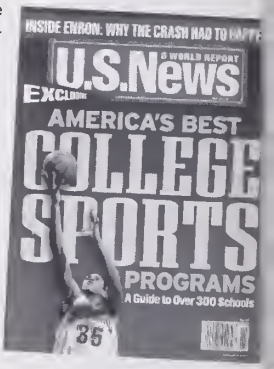
One af Mote's first tosks here wos to serve an a gavernar's tosk force to exomine the funding ond argonizatian af the University System af Morylond. The tosk farce recammended, ond the Generol Assembly enocted into low, o reoffirmotian af the university's flogship statas ond o cammitment to funding at levels camparable ta the best public universities in the natian.

As president, Mate is committed ta making thot asset even greater by creoting o culture of excellence ond civility ocross the compus, continuing ta emphasize the highest quolity educotian far students, strengthening the university's internol ond externol connectians, and achieving distinction os on institution where discavery tokes place every day ond everywhere.

The university's progress in eoch of these oreas con be measured by the quality af its pragroms; the stature af its faculty; the talent of its students; partnerships with business; impact on the state's economy; its obility to opply discoveries ta glabal, natianal and regianal prablems; ond its world-class, state-of-the-ort focilities.

Zuality Programs

Over the post decode, Morylond's progroms hove been improving by leops ond bounds. We currently have 65 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the tap 25 natianally by U.S. News & World Report, campared with just one progrom o decode ogo.



While the university's acadamic successes are across the baard, it has emerged as a true pawerhouse in business, camputer science, earth sciences, engineering, educotion ond journolism. The Robert H. Smith School of Business has achieved top 10 rankings fram such beacan publicatians as the Financial Times of Landan and the Wall Street Journal. Every department in the College of Educotion has pragroms ranked in the U.S. News tap 25, and the Counseling ond Personnel Services Progrom has long been ranked taps in the notion.

Faculty Stature

With the addition during Mote's third year of o Nabel Laureate in Physics ond three mare Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already an the faculty), Marylond continues to attract the best faculty available. More than 30 faculty are members of the national academies in their fields, the highest professional recognition attainable.

Experts an the Morylond faculty are regularly saught by the news media for their views on a wide variety of issues, including politics, internatianal affairs, social trends, economics, the environment, science ond technalagy.

DEBORAH A. YOW

- Selected in 2002 by U.S. News & World Repart os ane of the Tap 20 othletic programs in the notion (for overall quolity ond competitive excellence).
- In faatboll, won the Atlontic Coost Conference chompionship ond ployed in the 2002 Orange Bawl. In men's bosketball, won the ACC regular seoson in 2002, os well os the NCAA natianal chompionship. The Terps ore omong only o few NCAA institutions to hove ochieved ot this distinguished level in these sports in the some yeor.
- Hired the Assacioted Press Notionol Cooch of the Yeor, Brenda Frese, os the new women's bosketboll coach.
- Hired Dave Cattle, the third winningest octive men's locrosse cooch in the U.S.
- Field hockey played far the natianol chompionship.
- Women's locrosse hos continued its winning ways and won seven consecutive notionol chompionships through 2001.
- Enhoncing footboll focilities significontly with Teom House and practice field upgrodes.
- Moved into the new $125 million Comcost Center.
- The othletics budget wos bolonced for the eighth consecutive yeor.
- In 2001-02 10 Marylond teoms competed in NCAA postseoson ploy.
- The praductivity, marale, and the competitive and academic ochievement of Terropin othletics ore exceptionol ond continue ta gain momentum.

Regarding the mony ochievements of Terropin othletics over the past eight years, Yaw says, "We ore pleosed, but we ore not sotisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 progroms in the notion cansistently ... we see no reasan to settle for less."

Yaw is known far her gool-oriented ond proactive management style. She consistently inspires ond chollenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen aur taals ... ta wark hard ond work smort ... to recognize thot our only limitotions ore those thot we ploce upon ourselves."

As o monoger ond o leoder, she cleorly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I wha hos hired bath the Notional Cooch of the Yeor in footboll (while at Maryland) and the Natianal Caach af the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "o cooch's AD," while olso being o highly orgonized, strategic and proactive leoder ond odministrotor. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relotionol ond monogement dynomics thot ore necessory to be an excellent odministrotor.

A successful farmer caach at the University af Kentucky and at the University af Flarida, she moved into othletics odministrotion ot the University of Florido and the University of North Corolino, Greensboro, followed by o highly successful tenure as AD ot Saint Louis University.

She hos outhored numerous orticles ond books on othletics monogement ond humon behovior, ond is o respected leoder in intercollegiote othletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire athletics program, Dr. Yaw recently observed, "We hove the finest student-athletes, cooches, support stoff ond odministrotive teom in Americo. It is becouse af their couroge, hard wark and caaperative spirit that we naw have a strong, viable othletic progrom. I om immensely proud of eoch of them. I om equolly proud of our Terropin fons who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members wha faithfully suppart the Maryland athletic program with their danations far scholorship, ond the Morylond Educotionol Foundotion ond M Club members who serve ond give liberolly. We hove a great Terrapin family. That's the foundotion for oll af aur success ... and the bosis for aur bright future."

Dave Haglund

Associate A.D./Media Relations
Softball Sport Supervisor

Dave Haglund joined the University of Maryland athletic staff in January of 1998 following a 16-year career in the sports information office at Fresno State University. At Maryland he serves as the administrative head of the Terrapins' media relations unit, overseeing the development and implementation of initiatives to provide publicity for the university's 25 varsity sports and more than 600 student-athletes.

He was elevated to associate athletics director in February 1999, and also serves as sports supervisor for gymnastics, women's lacrosse and men's golf.

A 1981 graduate of Oregon State University, Haglund began his sports information career as an assistant SID at Fresno State in 1981 and was elevated to sports information director in 1996. During the course of his career at Fresno State, he served as the primary contact person for the Bulldogs' nationally ranked Division I football, basketball, baseball and soccer programs. He also served as information director of the California Bowl (1982-83) for two years.

Haglund and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of two children: Samantha (9) and Matthew (7).

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Robert Koonce, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

Amy Sandler

Former softball star Amy Sandler serves as the Academic Support Director for the softball team at Maryland.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for longtime Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for seven professional academic counselors, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, the center's extended site is located in the Gossett Football Team House, and includes office space for two professional counselors, a program assistant and a 23-station desktop computer center.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success Program (C.H.A.M.P.S.) and the NCAA Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation. At Maryland, ASCDU offers a variety of programs and services including: prospective student-athlete orientation, academic counseling, NCAA academic eligibility monitoring, academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops, accredited tutorial support, individualized learning program, in addition to the following academic courses: EDCP 108-K (college learning strategies and skills), EDCP 108-M (math learning strategies and skills), and UNIV 100/101 (first-year transitions to the university).

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete. ASCDU hosts the spirit games that bring together student-athletes from various teams to support fellow student-athletes at home events.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging the emotional well-being, personal growth and decision making skills. ASCDU sponsors workshops and seminars that address issues pertinent to the student-athlete, including the HERO Campaign.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club. It is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process and is distributed to more than 800 corporations and businesses across the country. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements.
